

The Affirmation Process

What am I doing?

- You are following your call.
- You are making yourself available by posting your letter to the wall.
 - Follow the directions below.
- Steps of participating in the affirmation process
 - We are reading each person's letter that has made himself or herself available.
 - We are Affirming the person we feel God is calling to serve that area by Using the available paper sheets to write down the person's name, you feel God is calling to that area and placing it in the box.
 - We are praying for each person that makes themselves available. We are praying for the community's impact on campus.
- Affirming the person, you feel God is calling to serve that area by Using the available paper sheets to write down the person's name, you feel God is calling to that area and placing it in the box.

What am I not doing?

- Campaigning (for myself or others)
- Running for a position
- Voting for or against someone
- Concerned about being qualified

What do I include in my letter?

- Name
- How long you can serve: Spring Semester or Year (Jan. to Dec.)
- The area you feel God is calling you to serve.
- What does your calling to this area look like or feel like for you?
- What vision has God put on your heart to do differently in this area of ministry?

